1 SHOW YOU THE DOOR

Blu Interni's doorways transform the ordinary room barrier into a striking, richly textured canvas. Part of the Italian manufacturer's B-Line collection of designs that close flush to the wall, this Pietra finish mimics the rugged look of stone. FROM $3550, AT ITALIAN ART INTERIOR, 124 LAIRD DR ITALIANARTINTERIOR.COM

2 BOOM BOX

The genius Cube side table-slash-stereo system by La Boite Concept is fully tuned into modern listening habits. Rest your laptop on the top shelf, or DJ wirelessly from a smartphone. Six speakers direct crisp audio to every corner of a room. $1795, AT STYLEGARAGE, 78 OSSINGTON AVE STYLEGARAGE.COM

3 TOP-TIER LADDER

Designed by Toronto's MSDS Studio for Assembly, a concept collection envisioned in collaboration with industry breakouts, EQ3's Rack props up against bathroom walls to hold towels and robes. It's inspired by a design featured in the 1953 film Tokyo Story. $300, AT EQ3, 222 KING ST E (ALSO: 51 HANNA AVE, STE #3) EQ3.COM

4 SOLAR ECLIPSE

Named after Helios, the Greek sun god, Workstead's table lamp casts a heavenly glow. A rotating brass dish sits opposite the dimmable light's bare bulb to act as a deflector. Choose from Carrara, green marble and travertine bases. $2315, AT HOLLACE CLUNY, 160 PEARS AVE, STE #203 HOLLACECLUNY.CA

5 ME IN THE BENZ

Newly available at Klaus, Rolf Benz's made-in-Deutschland seating is as well-engineered as German sports cars. The deep, über-comfortable Cara sofa is fully customizable, with hundreds of fabric and leg combinations to choose from. FROM $10,665, AT KLAUSN, 300 KING ST E KLAUSN.COM
